

The Juilliard School Evening Division

2010 Conducting Workshop for Music Educators

Inspiring Artistry in Music Education

July 12-15 • The Juilliard School • New York City

Virginia Allen, Artistic Director

Danielle La Senna, Administrative Director

Conducting Faculty: Virginia Allen (Juilliard), George Stelluto (Juilliard), and James Smith (University of Wisconsin-Madison, Wisconsin Youth Orchestras).

Seminar Teachers: Otto-Werner Mueller (Conductor Emeritus, Juilliard; The Curtis Institute of Music) and Juilliard faculty members Joseph Alessi, Eric Ewazen, Gary Thor Wedow, Shafer Mahoney, and Wayne Oquin.

This Workshop is designed for instrumental music educators actively teaching at the middle school, high school, and college levels. The Workshop features band and orchestra conducting in the same workshop, daily conducting opportunities with advanced ensembles, sessions on specific issues in conducting and music education, and an opportunity for each Conducting Fellow to work with Conducting Faculty. All conducting sessions are video recorded. Seminar topics include score analysis, improving aural skills, arranging for your ensemble, working with composers, and audition preparation for school musicians. The repertoire is Beethoven: Symphony No. 1; Dvorak: Serenade in D minor; and Mozart: Eine kleine Nachtmusik.

Ten CONDUCTING FELLOWS will be selected to conduct during daily podium sessions for a Workshop total of approximately 60 minutes; receive video feedback; and participate in seminars. Conducting Fellow applicants must submit a DVD of 15 minutes of a rehearsal and 15 minutes of a performance with the application. The Conducting Fellow fee is $2,000 for 2 credits. Thirty PARTICIPANTS will be selected to observe conducting sessions and participate in seminars. The Participant fee is $1,200 for 1 credit. Limited housing is available.

Application Deadline: April 1, 2010

Notification of acceptance: May 1, 2010

Application Fee for all applicants: $40 (non-refundable)
